
THE VIRGINIA REGISTER INFORMATION PAGE

THE VIRGINIA REGISTER is an official state publication issued every other week throughout the year. Indexes are published quarterly, and the last index of the year is cumulative. THE VIRGINIA REGISTER has several functions. The new and amended sections of regulations, both as proposed and as finally adopted, are required by law to be published in THE VIRGINIA REGISTER OF REGULATIONS. In addition, THE VIRGINIA REGISTER is a source of other information about state government, including all emergency regulations and executive orders issued by the Governor, the Virginia Tax Bulletin issued periodically by the Department of Taxation, and notices of public hearings and open meetings of state agencies.

ADOPTION, AMENDMENT, AND REPEAL OF REGULATIONS

An agency wishing to adopt, amend, or repeal regulations must first publish in the Virginia Register a notice of intended regulatory action; a basis, purpose, substance and issues statement; an economic impact analysis prepared by the Department of Planning and Budget; the agency's response to the economic impact analysis; a summary; a notice giving the public an opportunity to comment on the proposal; and the text of the proposed regulation.

Following publication of the proposal in the Virginia Register, the promulgating agency receives public comments for a minimum of 60 days. The Governor reviews the proposed regulation to determine if it is necessary to protect the public health, safety and welfare, and if it is clearly written and easily understandable. If the Governor chooses to comment on the proposed regulation, his comments must be transmitted to the agency and the Registrar no later than 15 days following the completion of the 60-day public comment period. The Governor's comments, if any, will be published in the Virginia Register. Not less than 15 days following the completion of the 60-day public comment period, the agency may adopt the proposed regulation.

The appropriate standing committee of each branch of the General Assembly may meet during the promulgation or final adoption process and file an objection with the Registrar and the promulgating agency. The objection will be published in the Virginia Register. Within 21 days after receipt by the agency of a legislative objection, the agency shall file a response with the Registrar, the objecting legislative committee, and the Governor.

When final action is taken, the agency again publishes the text of the regulation as adopted, highlighting all changes made to the proposed regulation and explaining any substantial changes made since publication of the proposal. A 30-day final adoption period begins upon final publication in the Virginia Register.

The Governor may review the final regulation during this time and, if he objects, forward his objection to the Registrar and the agency. In addition to or in lieu of filing a formal objection, the Governor may suspend the effective date of a portion or all of a regulation until the end of the next regular General Assembly session by issuing a directive signed by a majority of the members of the appropriate standing committees and the Governor. The Governor's objection or suspension of the regulation, or both, will be published in the Virginia Register. If the Governor finds that changes made to the proposed regulation have substantial impact, he may require the agency to provide an additional 30-day public comment period on the changes. Notice of the additional public comment period required by the Governor will be published in the Virginia Register.

The agency shall suspend the regulatory process for 30 days when it receives requests from 25 or more individuals to solicit additional public comment, unless the agency determines that the changes have minor or inconsequential impact.

A regulation becomes effective at the conclusion of the 30-day final adoption period, or at any other later date specified by the promulgating agency, unless (i) a legislative objection has been filed, in which event the regulation, unless withdrawn, becomes effective on the date specified, which shall be after the expiration of the 21-day extension period; (ii) the Governor exercises his authority to require the agency to provide for additional public comment, in which event the regulation, unless withdrawn, becomes effective on the date specified, which shall be after the expiration of the period for which the Governor has provided for additional public comment; (iii) the Governor and the General Assembly exercise their authority to suspend the effective date of a regulation until the end of the next regular legislative session; or (iv) the agency suspends the regulatory process, in which event the regulation, unless withdrawn, becomes effective on the date specified, which shall be after the expiration of the 30-day public comment period.

Proposed regulatory action may be withdrawn by the promulgating agency at any time before the regulation becomes final.

EMERGENCY REGULATIONS

If an agency demonstrates that (i) there is an immediate threat to the public's health or safety; or (ii) Virginia statutory law, the appropriation act, federal law, or federal regulation requires a regulation to take effect no later than (a) 280 days from the enactment in the case of Virginia or federal law or the appropriation act, or (b) 280 days from the effective date of a federal regulation, it then requests the Governor's approval to adopt an emergency regulation. The emergency regulation becomes operative upon its adoption and filing with the Registrar of Regulations, unless a later date is specified. Emergency regulations are limited to addressing specifically defined situations and may not exceed 12 months in duration. Emergency regulations are published as soon as possible in the Register.

During the time the emergency status is in effect, the agency may proceed with the adoption of permanent regulations through the usual procedures. To begin promulgating the replacement regulation, the agency must (i) file the Notice of Intended Regulatory Action with the Registrar within 60 days of the effective date of the emergency regulation; and (ii) file the proposed regulation with the Registrar within 180 days of the effective date of the emergency regulation. If the agency chooses not to adopt the regulations, the emergency status ends when the prescribed time limit expires.

STATEMENT

The foregoing constitutes a generalized statement of the procedures to be followed. For specific statutory language, it is suggested that Article 2 (§ 9-6.14:7.1 et seq.) of Chapter 1.1:1 of the Code of Virginia be examined carefully.

TITLE 9. ENVIRONMENT

VIRGINIA WASTE MANAGEMENT BOARD

Notice of Intended Regulatory Action

Notice is hereby given in accordance with § 9-6.14:7.1 of the Code of Virginia that the Virginia Waste Management Board intends to consider amending regulations entitled: 9 VAC 20-60-12 et seq. Virginia Hazardous Waste Management Regulations (Amendment 15). The purpose of the proposed action is to update the regulations regarding transportation, treatment, storage, and disposal of hazardous waste so as to protect the public health, natural resources and environment; maintain consistency with federal requirements; and maintain authorization. By maintaining the equivalence of its regulations with those issued by the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976 (RCRA) and the Hazardous and Solid Waste Amendments of 1984 (HSWA), the Commonwealth remains eligible to carry out its own hazardous waste management program and be an authorized state under the federal acts.

Amendment 15 will consider incorporation of changes in the federal regulations in Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations occurring since Amendment 14 through July 1, 1998, including amendments promulgated in the Federal Register on, at least, the following dates: January 3, 1995, December 6, 1994, January 13, 1995, February 9, 1995, April 17, 1995, May 12, 1995, April 4, 1995, May 19, 1995, June 29, 1995, July 11, 1995, September 29, 1995, October 30, 1995, December 11, 1995, February 9, 1996, March 26, 1996, April 8, 1996 (2), April 30, 1996, June 28, 1996, July 10, 1996, August 26, 1996, February 17, 1997, April 12, 1996, July 1, 1996, December 6, 1994, May 19, 1995, September 29, 1995, November 13, 1995, February 9, 1996, June 5, 1996, November 23, 1996, January 14, 1997, February 12, 1997, May 12, 1997, June 13, 1997, June 17, 1997, July 14, 1997, August 28, 1997, December 5, 1997, December 8, 1997, April 15, 1998, May 4, 1998, June 29, 1998, May 6, 1998, July 14, 1998, May 26, 1998, June 8, 1998, and June 19, 1998. These amendments of the federal regulations address, at least, the following items:

1. Revisions of the Universal Treatment Standards regarding land disposal restrictions or related changes;
2. Revisions to listings and exemptions of certain carbamate chemicals production wastes (U and K listings);
3. Housekeeping changes related to adoption errors and obsolete provisions;

4. Adoption of additional test methods related to rules that prohibit liquids in landfills;

5. New rules about the public participation process in the permitting of storage, treatment and disposal facilities and for test burns at incinerators and combustion facilities;

6. Correction of adoption errors in the exclusion rules for recovered oil which is recycled;

7. Addition of rules related to Phase III of the land disposal restriction and treatment standards concerning carbamate pesticide production wastes, primary aluminum production wastes, characteristic wastes, listed wastes, and wastes that are diluted;

8. Identification of import and export wastes subject to the graduated system of controls under the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development;

9. Revisions of rules for disposal of wastes from conditionally exempt small quantity generators;

10. Adoption of additional air standards for the control of organic emissions from tanks, surface impoundments, containers and miscellaneous units, including during accumulation of waste on-site;

11. Extensions of the national capacity variance (under Phase III of the Land Disposal Restrictions) for spent potliners for primary aluminum production;

12. Adoption of Military Munitions Rule, which identifies when conventional and chemical military munitions become a hazardous waste, provides rules for the safe storage and transport of such waste, changes rules regarding emergency responses involving munitions and explosives, and exempts generators and transporters from manifest requirements on right-of-ways that are on or along the border of contiguous properties under the control of the same person;

13. Adoption of land disposal restrictions - Phase IV, which establishes treatment standards under the land disposal restrictions for waste from wood preserving operations, revises record keeping related to land disposal restrictions, regulates polymerizations as a treatment alternative, clarifies de minimis amounts exemption of characteristic wastewaters, and excludes processed circuit boards and scrap metal from regulation as hazardous wastes;

14. Update the incorporation by reference citation of SW-846, Third Edition, "Test Methods for Evaluation Solid Waste, Physical/Chemical Methods," to include changes through January 13, 1997 (through Update III);

15. Revisions and withdrawals of certain rules related to listing of carbamate wastes;

Notices of Intended Regulatory Action

16. Extension of alternate treatment standard for carbamate under the land disposal restrictions (Aug. 26, 1997, to Aug. 26, 1998);

17. Clarifications of the rules for authorization of variances from the treatment standards of the land disposal restriction regulations, and incorporation of rules requiring public participation in site specific variance considerations;

18. Amendments and clarifications of the air standards for the control of organic emissions from tanks, surface impoundments, and container;

19. Exclusions from regulation as hazardous waste of the condensates derived from the overhead gases from kraft mill steam strippers under specified conditions;

20. Additions of specific organobromine production wastes to the list of hazardous wastes and listings of land disposal treatment standards for those wastes;

21. Correction and adoption of rules related to the management standards of used oil contaminated with PCB's and other used oil;

22. Adoption of treatment standards under the land disposal restrictions for metal wastes, mineral processing waste and 12 metal constituents; adoption of land disposal prohibition and treatment standards for mineral processing waste that are ignitable, corrosive or reactive; amendment of the definition of when secondary materials being recycled are solid waste so as to exclude certain mineral processing waste; amendment of the definition of which wastes fall under the Bevill exemption; adoption of treatment standards under the land disposal restrictions for contaminated soils as waste; and adoption of corrections and clarifying provisions to the land disposal restrictions;

23. Exclusion from regulation as solid waste those fuels produced from a hazardous waste which is comparable to some currently used fossil fuels, and addition of provisions to make it easier for existing facilities to make changes to their existing permit.

In addition to the promulgated amendments of federal regulations, Amendment 15 may consider the following items:

1. Errors and omissions resulting from previous amendments of the regulations, including the change in the format of the regulations effected by Amendment 14;

2. Several amendments to the requirements for the transportation of hazardous waste, including insurance requirements; financial assurance requirements for hazardous waste management facilities; and documentation demonstrating compliance with financial assurance requirements which were recommended by commenters regarding Amendment 14, but which could not be addressed in Amendment 14 for procedural reasons;

3. Revision of the schedule of permit application fees to reflect increased cost of permit reviews;

4. Further use or expansion of the format of incorporation by reference of federal regulations;

5. Inclusion of additional waste streams as listed Universal Wastes;

6. Alterations or clarifications of the regulations concerning transfer stations and the definition of transfer stations to prevent inappropriate siting of the transfer station and abusive practices; and

7. Alterations or clarifications of the regulations concerning receipt of waste from conditionally exempt small quantity generators to prevent threats caused by amassing such waste from several generators in an inappropriate manner.

A technical advisory committee will advise the Department of Environmental Quality on what amended regulatory text to recommend to the board as proposed regulations. This panel will advise the department on less intrusive and less burdensome alternatives, where such exist, and during the public participation process, the general public will also be asked to suggest less intrusive and burdensome alternatives. The vast majority of changes to be considered will be the direct result of incorporation of federal regulatory text into Commonwealth regulations, and consistency with federal regulations is required by the Act and necessary for authorization of the Commonwealth's program by USEPA. Many of the changes to federal regulations that would be incorporated are themselves a reduction in intrusion and burden on the regulated community from prior federal requirement currently incorporated into the Commonwealth regulations. The agency intends to hold a public hearing on the proposed regulation after publication.

Public comments may be submitted until June 1, 1999.

CHAPTER 1030.

MANAGEMENT PLAN FOR THE UNGRANTED STATE LANDS IN ACCOMACK AND NORTHAMPTON COUNTIES.

4 VAC 20-1030-10. Purpose.

To date 28,507 acres of ungranted state lands have been identified in Accomack and Northampton Counties. These ungranted state lands, which include state-owned beaches, marshes, meadowlands, commons, and other coastal lands, constitute a fragile and dynamic natural coastal resource of the Commonwealth of Virginia. As set forth in § 28.2-1504 of the Code of Virginia, the goal of this management plan shall be to conserve and protect the shores of the sea, marsh and meadowlands, and the natural values and natural processes associated therewith. To the extent not inconsistent with that goal, the management plan shall also consider the traditional uses of such properties and the promotion of tourism and commerce.

The purpose of this plan is the development of a comprehensive conservation and management strategy whereby these lands may be managed in such a manner as to conserve and protect the natural values associated with those lands (habitats, food webs, plant and animal species) while accommodating compatible traditional uses. This plan envisions single agency management with involvement of local interests and state natural resource agencies in the conservation and management of these lands, and provides a mechanism for the resolution of conflicting uses. These lands, and their management, do not stand alone. They are, especially on the Eastern Shore seaside, an essential and integral part of a large and complex working ecosystem which is subject to regulation and management by numerous agencies, government and nongovernment, at many different levels.

4 VAC 20-1030-20. Description of ungranted state lands.

A. Location and boundaries. This management plan covers 28,507 acres of ungranted state lands on Virginia's Eastern Shore. 27,722 acres are located on the seaside between the barrier islands and the mainland. 785 acres are located on the bayside. Although most of these lands are marsh, there are some uplands and fringe marsh included in the acreage identified as being state owned. The state lands covered by this plan have been surveyed by the Virginia Marine Resources Commission (VMRC) which produced a series of maps depicting the state lands. The maps have been recorded in the clerks' offices of Accomack and Northampton Counties and can be found at the Accomack County Courthouse in Accomack and at the Northampton County Courthouse in Eastville.

B. Surrounding demographic features.

1. Northampton County. Northampton County is located on the southern half of the Delmarva Peninsula in Virginia, known as Virginia's Eastern Shore. The southern tip of the Eastern Shore is connected to the Virginia mainland by the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel.

Northampton County is approximately 35 miles in length with an average width of six miles. The county extends from the Accomack County line in the north to Fisherman Island at the southern tip of the peninsula. The county encompasses about 360 square miles or 229,947 acres of land, tidal marshes, bayside creeks and barrier islands.

More than half of the total acres in Northampton County are marshes, bayside creeks, and barrier islands. Twenty-five percent of the land is in agricultural and forest use. Only 3.0% of the land is developed for residential and commercial use. The remaining portion is undeveloped.

Northampton County is governed by a Board of Supervisors. The county seat is in Eastville. According to statistics published in the 1990 census, the population of Northampton County is 13,061. The county is predominantly rural with occasional small residential centers. The basis of the economy is agriculture and seafood. The main occupations are in retail trade; the agriculture, forestry and fishing industries; manufacturing; construction; tourism; and health/education services.

2. Accomack County. Accomack County is located on the northern half of Virginia's Eastern Shore. Accomack County is approximately 45 miles long with an average width of 15 miles. The county stretches from the Northampton County line at the south to the Maryland state line at the north, and out to Tangier and Smith Islands in the Chesapeake Bay.

Accomack County encompasses approximately 476 square miles, or 300,649 acres of mainland, marsh and barrier islands. Sixty-six percent of the mainland is in agricultural and forest use. Twenty-three percent of the land is tidal marshes and barrier islands, and the remaining 11% is developed for residential and commercial use.

Accomack County is governed by a Board of Supervisors. The county seat is in Accomac. According to statistics published in the 1990 census, the population of Accomack County is 31,703. The main occupations are in retail trade; manufacturing; health/education; tourism; and the agriculture, farming and fishing industries.

C. Climate. The climate of the Eastern Shore is coastal with mild winters and warm, humid summers.

D. Land use.

1. Historic uses. The ungranted state lands covered by this management plan have historically been open to the public for traditional subsistence and recreational uses. Open access to beaches, marshes and meadowlands has been allowed in the past for recreational activities such as hunting, fishing, fowling, trapping, camping, salvaging, and egging. In addition, commercial harvest of fowl, furbearers, finfish, shellfish, and terrapin has been allowed historically subject to state and federal regulations and, for personal and family use, by local citizens for centuries. These rights are intrinsic to the commons concept recognized in Virginia statutes and such uses are supported by historical precedent and general usage.

2. Current uses. Ungranted state lands are currently used for recreational and commercial activities, subject to state and federal regulations. It should be noted that certain historical uses, such as egging, are no longer permissible under current legislation. This plan does not change existing laws and regulations concerning recreational and commercial activities or other traditional uses of the ungranted state lands. If it is, however, found that these activities threaten the natural integrity of these lands, it may be necessary to revise existing laws and regulations or to establish new guidelines or policies. Such changes would be in accordance with established procedures.

3. Surrounding land holdings.

a. Accomack County. The land surrounding the ungranted state lands in Accomack County fall into two categories of the Accomack zoning ordinance: (i) the agriculture district which covers portions of the county occupied by various open uses such as marsh lands, beaches, forests, parks and farms; and (ii) the Barrier Island District. In addition, Accomack County has a wetlands ordinance and a Chesapeake Bay preservation ordinance which overlay the zoning ordinance. Any development in these zoning districts is subject to the restrictions and regulations of the Accomack zoning ordinance. The county's future land use plans are detailed in the Accomack Comprehensive Plan, Section 5.

b. Northampton County. The land surrounding the ungranted state lands in Northampton County is currently zoned as an agriculture/residential district. There are, however, several ordinances that overlay the agriculture district. These are the Chesapeake Bay/Atlantic Ocean Preservation Area, the wetlands ordinance, and the primary sand dune ordinance. The future land use plan for Northampton County is detailed in Part II of the Northampton Comprehensive Plan.

4. The Nature Conservancy land holdings. The Nature Conservancy, a private, nonprofit conservation organization, owns and manages 14 islands, saltmarsh tracts, and adjacent mainland sites totaling 40,000 acres on Virginia's Eastern Shore. This area is called the Virginia Coast Reserve, and it has been designated a Biosphere Reserve by the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) in its Man and the Biosphere Programme, recognizing it as one of the world's most important ecosystems. The Nature Conservancy is working to protect significant ecological values on Virginia's Eastern Shore.

5. Federal land holdings. The federal government has extensive holdings on Virginia's Eastern Shore. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service administers the National Wildlife Refuge System for the protection and conservation of fish and wildlife including those threatened with extinction. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service has two offices, the Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge and the Eastern Shore National Wildlife Refuge, that manage the federal holdings on Virginia's Eastern Shore. The federal holdings are:

Final Regulations

Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge:

Assateague - 9,459 acres

Chincoteague - 550 acres

Morris Island - 427 acres

Assawoman Island - 1,434 acres

Metomkin Island - 174 acres

Cedar Island - 1,250 acres

Eastern Shore National Wildlife Refuge - 752 acres

Fisherman Island National Wildlife Refuge - 1,825 acres

Wallops Island National Wildlife Refuge - 3,376 acres (3,000 acres owned by NASA)

6. State land holdings. In addition to the ungranted state lands covered by this management plan, the Commonwealth of Virginia owns lands designated as natural areas and state parks on the Eastern Shore. These are:

Wreck and Bone Island - a natural area preserve managed by the Department of Conservation and Recreation - 1,380 acres

Parker's Marsh - a natural area managed by the Department of Conservation and Recreation - 750 acres

Kiptopeke State Park - managed by the Department of Conservation and Recreation, Division of State Parks - 375 acres

Mockhorn Island - a wildlife management area managed by the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries - 7,642 acres

Saxis Marsh - a wildlife management area managed by the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries - 5,574.34 acres

7. Local land holdings.

Raccoon Park - located in Northampton County - 60 acres

4 VAC 20-1030-30. Resources.

A. Physical features.

1. Introduction. The Eastern Shore of Virginia lies on the Atlantic Coastal Plain where the geology is characterized by layers of unconsolidated sediments (sand, silt, gravel) over deeply buried bedrock. Marshes and some other wetland types contain significant amounts of peat (partly decayed vegetation) at or near the surface. The soils and hydrology of the ungranted state lands on the seaside and bayside have not been completely identified. In 1976, the Nature Conservancy issued a study of the barrier islands which included detailed descriptions of the geology, soils, and hydrology of the Eastern Shore and in 1993, the Division of Mines, Minerals, and Energy produced a geologic map of Virginia. Until the sources of information are updated, they are the best sources of information on the physical resources of the Eastern Shore.

2. Seaside lands. Barrier islands extend along the eastern side of the Eastern Shore peninsula. Virginia's Barrier Islands parallel the peninsula from the Maryland state line to the southern tip at Fisherman Island, and lie within Accomack and Northampton Counties.

The barrier islands are characterized by broad beaches and sand dunes on the eastern shores and extensive marshes on their inner coasts. The islands are composed of sands deposited by the ocean. Between the barrier islands and the mainland lies a maze of tidal flats, salt marshes, tidal channels, and shallow bays. The tidal marshes, of which most of the ungranted state lands are comprised, are an important aquatic ecosystem. The Waterway Along the Coast of Virginia (WCV) winds through the marsh, providing boat passage and access to much of the area.

The barrier islands undergo constant change and are occasionally breached at high tide. Due to coastal dynamics, some of the areas that are now tidal marshes may become beach areas in the future.

3. Bayside lands. The western side of the Eastern Shore peninsula fronts on the Chesapeake Bay. This shore has a varied physiography including islands, high bluffs, dunes, flat sandy beaches, tidal flats, and marshes. The entire west coast of the peninsula is penetrated by a complex system of tidal creeks.

B. Habitats of the ungranted state lands.

1. Salt marshes. The majority of the ungranted state lands consist of salt marsh. The dominant vegetation on these marshes is salt marsh cordgrass. A short form of this species grows in the interior of the marshes; a taller form normally lines the channels and guts. The salt marshes provide spawning and nursery grounds for fish and food for waterfowl and wildlife, deter shoreline erosion, and control water quality by trapping sediment.

2. Other habitats. A small percentage of the ungranted state lands are habitats other than salt marsh. These include fastlands, tree-lined ridges, and shrub habitats dominated by such species as marsh elder, groundsel tree, and wax myrtle; shell piles associated with the margins of some of the marshes built up to an elevation slightly above high tide; sandy berms which may accrete along the edges of some of the marshes; tidal flats, salt ponds, and pannes (small shallow saltwater ponds) scattered throughout the marshes; and wrack, the debris washed up along the high tide line.

C. Shellfish and finfish of the Eastern Shore. The seafood industry in Virginia is one of the Eastern Shore's oldest and most successful industries. Commercial and recreational fishing and aquaculture contribute significantly to the economy of the Eastern Shore. Shellfish and finfish are found in the waters surrounding the Eastern Shore. Oysters, clams, and crabs are commercially important shellfish and crustaceans. Commercially and recreationally important finfish include menhaden, flounder, scup, striped bass, herring, mullet, weakfish, bluefish, Norfolk spot, croaker, and sea trout.

D. Game species of the Eastern Shore. The only large game on the Eastern Shore is the white-tailed deer. Small game is plentiful and the wide variety of small game found on the Eastern Shore includes the cottontail rabbit, bobwhite (quail), mourning dove, turkey, woodcock, opossum, weasel, skunk, muskrat, red and gray fox, raccoon, river otter, mink, and squirrel. The Eastern Shore is also an important area for migratory waterfowl including ducks, geese, rails, and other migratory game birds.

E. Birds of the eastern shore. The most outstanding biological resources of the ungranted state lands are the bird communities they support. During the spring and summer no less than 25 different sensitive (rare, threatened, endangered, or highly vulnerable) species of gulls, terns, herons, ibis, and shorebirds use the ungranted state lands for nesting or foraging or both. According to the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries comprehensive bird survey, a total of 34,536 colonial birds nested in Northampton and Accomack Counties in 1993.

Habitat quality and diversity as well as the undeveloped nature of the area contribute to the importance of ungranted state lands in protecting sensitive species. In addition to waterfowl, shorebird and songbird species, colonial ground nesters such as the common tern and colonial shrub nesters such as the black-crowned night-heron use the ungranted state lands during all or a portion of the year. The comprehensive bird survey also identified threatened species such as the gull-billed tern, rare species such as the black skimmer, and sensitive species such as the laughing gull.

Many migratory birds using the Atlantic Flyway pass through the Eastern Shore on their spring and fall migrations to Central and South America and the Caribbean. This area is thought to be one of the most important focal points or "staging areas" for raptor and passerine migration on the east coast of the United States. Large concentrations of waterfowl and other migratory birds utilize these areas for over-wintering as well.

F. State and federally listed endangered and threatened species. Section 1538 of the Federal Endangered Species Act, 16 USC §§ 1531-1544, makes it illegal for any person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States to "take" any federally endangered or threatened species of fish or wildlife without a special exemption. Under this Act, "take" means to harass, harm, pursue, hunt, shoot, wound, kill, trap, capture, collect, or to attempt to engage in any such conduct. Harm has been further defined to consist of acts that may include significant habitat modification or degradation that results in the killing or injury of individuals by significantly impairing the essential behavioral patterns, including breeding, feeding or sheltering.

The Federal Endangered Species Act also provides protection measures for species listed under the law as threatened or endangered. These protection measures include recovery planning, mechanisms for cooperative management among federal and state agencies, habitat protection, and funding for state agencies for research and management of listed species.

The State Endangered Species Act, § 29.1-563 et seq. of the Code of Virginia, is administered by the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries. This act prohibits the taking, transportation, processing, sale or offer for sale within the Commonwealth of any fish or wildlife listed as a threatened or endangered species on the Federal Endangered Species List except as permitted. It further authorizes the listing of additional endangered or threatened species, not appearing on the federal list, that are likewise protected.

The Plant Protection Bureau of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services of the Commonwealth of Virginia administers the Endangered Plant and Insect Species Act, § 3.1-1020 et seq. of the Code of Virginia. This act makes it illegal for any person to dig, take, cut, possess, or otherwise collect, remove, transport, process, sell, offer for sale or give away any species native to or occurring in the wild in Virginia that are listed as threatened or endangered species except as specifically permitted, or when the plants or insects occur on the "taker's" own land.

Several mammals, birds, insects, and plants listed as threatened or endangered on federal and state lists have been identified on or in the waters surrounding Virginia's Eastern Shore.

These are:

1. Mammals:

Delmarva Peninsula Fox Squirrel (Sciurus niger cinereus) - listed as endangered on both the federal and state endangered species lists.

Bottlenose Dolphin (Tursiops truncatus), Manatee (Trichechus manatus), Harbor Seal (Phoca vitulina), Harbor Porpoise (Phocoena phocoena), Humpback Whale (Megaptera novaeangliae) and Fin Whale (Balaenoptera physalus) - listed as endangered or protected by the federal Marine Mammal Protection Act.

2. Birds:

Bald Eagle (Haliaeetus Leucocephalus) - listed as threatened on both the federal and state lists.

Peregrine Falcon (Falco peregrinus) - listed as endangered on both the federal and state endangered species lists.

Wilson's Plover (Charadrius wilsonia) - listed as endangered on the state endangered species list.

Final Regulations

Piping Plover (Charadrius melodus) - listed as threatened on both the federal and state lists.

Gull-billed Tern (Sterna nilotica) - listed as threatened on the state list.

Henslow's Sparrow (Ammodramus henslowii) - listed as threatened on the state list.

3. Insects:

Northeastern Beach Tiger Beetle (Cicindela dorsalis) - listed as threatened on the federal list.

4. Plants:

Sea-Beach Pigweed (Amaranthus pumilus) - listed as threatened on the federal list.

5. Reptiles:

Loggerhead (Caretta caretta), Leatherback (Dermochelys coriacea), Kemp's Ridley (Lepidochelys kempii), and Green Sea (Chelonia mydas) Turtles - listed as threatened or endangered on both the federal and state lists.

The Division of Natural Heritage of the Virginia Department of Conservation and Recreation has compiled a list of the Natural Heritage Resources of Virginia's Eastern Shore. This list, and an explanation of the global, federal and state rarity rankings, are available from the department upon request.

G. Resource protection laws. Resource protection relies on a number of existing federal and state laws and regulations. Listed below are some of the state laws directly affecting the ungranted state lands:

1. § 28.2-1200 et seq. of the Code of Virginia, which provides that all beds of the bays, rivers, creeks and the shores of the sea within the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth shall remain the property of the Commonwealth and may be used as a common by all the people of the Commonwealth for the purpose of fishing, fowling, and taking and catching oysters and other shellfish.

2. § 28.2-1201 of the Code of Virginia provides that all islands which rise from lands which are ungranted shall remain in public ownership and shall be managed pursuant to the provisions of Article 2 (§ 28.2-1503 et seq.) of Chapter 15 of Title 28.2 of the Code of Virginia.

3. § 28.2-1300 et seq. of the Code of Virginia defines the powers and duties of the Commissioner of the Virginia Marine Resources Commission (VMRC) to preserve and protect the despoliation and destruction of wetlands, and declares that the Commissioner shall manage all unappropriated marsh or meadowlands lying on the Eastern Shore of Virginia which remain ungranted pursuant to the provisions of Article 2 (§ 28.2-1503 et seq.) of Chapter 15 of Title 28.2 of the Code of Virginia.

4. § 28.2-1400 et seq. of the Code of Virginia, which provides that the Commissioner of the VMRC shall preserve and protect coastal primary sand dunes and beaches and prevent their despoliation and destruction and maximize their ecological value.

5. § 28.2-1500 et seq. of the Code of Virginia, which provides for the protection and management of ungranted shores of the sea, marsh, and meadowlands under the authority of the Virginia Marine Resources Commission.

4 VAC 20-1030-40. The management plan.

A. Management policies. Most of the ungranted state lands addressed by this plan are wetlands. It has long been the public policy of the Commonwealth of Virginia to preserve wetlands and to prevent their despoliation and destruction and to accommodate necessary economic development in a manner consistent with wetlands preservation. In keeping with this policy, it is the goal of this management plan to conserve and protect the shores of the sea, marsh, meadowlands, commons, and other coastal lands subject to this plan, and the natural values and natural processes associated with these lands and the complex working ecosystem of which they comprise an important part. In a manner consistent with this goal, the management plan shall also consider the traditional uses of such properties and the promotion of tourism and commerce.

State owned lands defined in the management plan will, subject to state and federal laws, be kept open and accessible for the use of the citizens of the Commonwealth. Traditional compatible uses (e.g., hunting, fishing and fowling) will be accommodated as provided for by local, state or federal laws.

Resource protection will rely on a network of federal, state and local laws and regulations. Requirements for local, state and federal permits and licenses will be observed, and the usual application procedures will be followed. Surveillance and enforcement mechanisms will remain in effect. The ungranted state lands fall under a number of different and overlapping jurisdictions and coordination, and cooperation among all levels of government is essential as is centralized storage and management of ungranted state lands information.

B. Administrative framework - management responsibility. Under Chapter 15, Article 2 of Title 28.2 of the Virginia Code, specifically §§ 28.2-1503 and 28.2-1504, the Virginia Marine Resources Commission is designated as the lead agency to manage the ungranted state lands on the Eastern Shore. This management plan will be implemented primarily through a cooperative effort among the Virginia Marine Resources Commission, the Virginia Institute of Marine Science, the Department of Conservation and Recreation, the Department of Game and Inland Fisheries, other participating and affected state agencies, the local governments and residents of Northampton and Accomack Counties, and any other legislatively designated entity.

The following administrative framework identifies roles and responsibilities of Virginia state agencies and the Virginia

Coastal Land Management Advisory Council involved in implementing this management plan.

1. Virginia Marine Resources Commission (VMRC). As specified in § 28.2-1501 B of the Code of Virginia, VMRC shall have the power to promulgate regulations and guidelines necessary to implement the policies in this plan and to protect and preserve the ungranted state lands on the Eastern Shore. Management regulations and guidelines shall be promulgated in accordance with § 28.2-103 of the Code of Virginia and the management issues section of this plan.

The VMRC, in consultation with other affected state agencies, shall have the power to regulate outdoor recreational activities that threaten the natural integrity of the ungranted state lands. Regulation of outdoor recreational activities shall be in accordance with the recreational activities section of this plan and the Administrative Process Act, §§ 9-6:14.11 and 9-6:14.12 of the Code of Virginia.

The VMRC shall have the power to amend this management plan as necessary to protect and preserve the ungranted state lands. Amendments to this plan will be in accordance with the provisions of the amendments section of this plan and the procedures established in Article 2 (§ 28.2-209 et seq.) of Chapter 2 of Title 28.2 of the Code of Virginia.

The VMRC shall periodically review the real property inventories of ungranted state lands on the Eastern Shore and may amend or supplement an inventory as may be appropriate. Any amendment or supplement to an inventory shall be filed with the clerks' offices in Northampton and Accomack counties. The VMRC shall publish a notice of the filing of an amendment or supplement to an inventory according to the statutory requirements for public notice contained in Article 1 (§ 28.2-1500 et seq.) of Chapter 15 of Title 28.2 of the Code of Virginia.

2. Virginia Coastal Land Management Advisory Council (VCLMAC). A Virginia Coastal Land Management Advisory Council shall be established to advise the VMRC on issues relating to the management of ungranted state lands on the Eastern Shore.

The VCLMAC shall be comprised of six residents of Northampton and Accomack Counties. They shall represent tourism and commerce, traditional uses of shores of the sea, marsh and meadowlands, and conservation interests. Any private person or entity owning more than 50% of the land area of the barrier islands of the Eastern Shore shall be one of the six members. The residents serving on the VCLMAC will be appointed by the Governor. In making these appointments, the Governor shall consider recommendations submitted by the Boards of Supervisors of Northampton and Accomack Counties.

The VCLMAC shall also include the Director of the Virginia Department of Conservation and Recreation or his designee, the Director of the Virginia Department of Game and Inland Fisheries or his designee, and the Commissioner of the Virginia Marine Resources Commission or his designee.

The VCLMAC shall advise the VMRC on issues relating to the management of ungranted shores of the sea, marsh and meadowlands, and shall advise the VMRC on the development of the management plan prepared pursuant to § 28.2-1504 of the Code of Virginia.

The term of office of each appointed member of the VCLMAC shall be for three years. Appointments to fill vacancies shall be made to fill the unexpired term. Members of the VCLMAC shall receive no compensation for their services but shall receive reimbursement for actual expenses.

The VCLMAC shall meet at the call of the Commissioner of the VMRC or at least once per year. The VCLMAC may recommend proposed regulations or guidelines for the ungranted state lands to the VMRC. The VMRC shall have final decision-making authority on the promulgation of proposed regulations and guidelines.

The VCLMAC may recommend to the VMRC resolutions to conflicts between parties on the use of the ungranted state lands. The VMRC shall have the authority to decide cases of conflicting uses. The VCLMAC may recommend amendments to this management plan. The VMRC shall have final decision-making authority on proposed amendments to this plan.

3. Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR). The Department of Conservation and Recreation's mission is to conserve Virginia's natural and recreational resources. DCR is responsible for the inventory of natural heritage resources, management of natural heritage information, protection of natural areas containing natural heritage resources, and the stewardship of those natural areas. DCR is the Commonwealth's lead agency in efforts to reduce nonpoint source pollution. The department also has experience managing 65,000 acres of parks and natural areas and their visitors and assists Virginia's counties and cities with the development of local parks. DCR operates many public education programs regarding the conservation of Virginia's natural, cultural, and recreational resources. Through these functions and services, DCR can provide information and technical advice to assist with the management of the ungranted state lands.

4. Department of Game and Inland Fisheries (DGIF). The Department of Game and Inland Fisheries (DGIF) exists to provide public, informational and educational services related to game, inland fisheries and boating, and to serve as the agency responsible for the administration and enforcement of all rules and regulations of the Board of Game and Inland Fisheries, the statutory provisions of Title 29.1 of the Code of Virginia, and related legislative acts. Through these functions and services, DGIF shall provide information and technical advice to assist with the management of the ungranted state lands.

5. Virginia Institute of Marine Science (VIMS). The Virginia Institute of Marine Science shall provide advice and assistance to the VMRC under its general legislative mandate by evaluating wetlands by type and maintaining and updating an inventory of wetlands on the ungranted state lands on the Eastern Shore.

6. Other affected governmental agencies. Other state and federal agencies will retain pre-existing responsibilities for resource management and surveillance and enforcement of statutes and regulations relevant to ungranted state lands and resources associated with them.

C. Management issues. The following section describes significant issues related to the management of the ungranted state lands on the Eastern Shore.

1. Adoption, amendment or repeal of regulations affecting the ungranted state lands. The VMRC shall have the power to promulgate regulations and guidelines necessary to implement the policy of this management plan.

The VMRC is empowered to make regulations or resolve conflicts affecting the ungranted state lands. The VCLMAC shall have the power to recommend proposed regulations to the VMRC. The adoption process shall be carried out in accordance with Article 2 (§ 28.2-2800 et seq.) of Chapter 2 of Title 28.2 of the Code of Virginia.

In addition, in accordance with the provisions of § 28.2-214 of the Code of Virginia, any person may petition the VMRC for the adoption, amendment or repeal of a regulation. When a private party petitions the VMRC for the adoption, amendment or repeal of a regulation, VMRC shall provide a written response to such petition within 180 days from the date the petition was received.

The VMRC shall establish and maintain a list or lists of persons expressing an interest in the adoption, amendment or repeal of regulations. Any person wishing to be placed on the list may do so by writing to the VMRC. The VMRC shall hold at least one public meeting when it considers the adoption, amendment or repeal of a regulation.

2. Recreational activities. Traditional recreational activities on the ungranted state lands shall be allowed to continue as long as they do not disrupt the natural integrity of the resources.

Traditional and current recreational uses of the ungranted state lands include hunting, fishing, fowling, clamming, oystering, crabbing, trapping, camping, picnicking, beachcombing, salvaging (or wrecking), birdwatching, and other nature study. These activities are subject to federal laws and the laws and regulations of the Commonwealth of Virginia. It is not the intent, objective or desire of this management plan to change existing law unless it is found that current uses threaten the natural integrity of these lands and resources.

The following uses and activities on the ungranted state lands are permitted, if otherwise permitted by federal and state law: conservation, repletion and research activities of the VMRC, VIMS, DGIF, DCR, and other related conservation agencies and educational institutions. Outdoor recreational activities provided that such activities do not (i) impair the natural function of these state lands, or (ii) alter the natural contour of these state lands.

If certain traditional recreational activities are found to threaten the natural integrity of the ungranted state lands, the VMRC shall be empowered through basic laws to regulate the recreational activities to the extent necessary to protect and preserve these lands and their resources. Recommendations for the regulation of recreational activities may come from other state agencies, the VCLMAC, and private parties.

Before initiating such regulations, the VMRC shall consult with other affected state agencies to ensure their knowledge of, and agreement with, the proposed regulation. The VMRC, in deciding to proceed with such regulation, shall follow the procedures for promulgation of regulations set forth in the adoption, amendment or repeal of regulations section of this management plan set out above.

3. Conflicting uses of the state lands. Conflicts may arise between parties on the uses of the ungranted state lands. The VMRC shall have the power to decide cases of conflicting uses.

This management plan is designed to protect the resources of the ungranted state lands and to provide for research, education and compatible traditional activities. When traditional uses conflict with research and education uses or threaten the integrity of the natural resources, every effort will be made to address the conflicts through a hearing process.

The VMRC is empowered to resolve cases of conflicting uses of the ungranted state lands. Parties in conflict shall appeal to the VMRC for resolution of the conflict and determination of appropriate use. The VMRC shall ascertain the fact basis for their decisions on conflicting uses through an informal conference or consultation proceeding as provided for in the Administrative Process Act (§ 9-6.14:11 of the Code of Virginia). In any case where the informal procedures have failed to resolve the case, the VMRC shall hold a formal hearing in accordance with the provisions of § 9-6.14:12 of the Code of Virginia.

Any party aggrieved by a decision or determination of the VMRC shall have the right to the direct review by an appropriate and timely court action in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Process Act (§ 9-6.14:1 et seq. of the Code of Virginia).

4. Review and amendment of the management plan. As specific issues of management are identified, this management plan may be reviewed and amended.

This management plan was developed to protect the resources on the ungranted state lands while allowing for traditional compatible uses that comply with federal and state laws and regulations and are in keeping with the good ecological health of the entire surrounding ecosystem. Known management issues have been addressed in this section. As other issues arise or are identified which require specific management, it will be necessary to amend the management plan.

Amendments to this management plan may originate with either (i) the VMRC, (ii) the VCLMAC, or (iii) any person through a petition to the VMRC or the VCLMAC to request an amendment to the plan.

Before approving and adopting any amendment to this management plan, the VMRC shall hold at least one public hearing on the amendment after which the lead agency may make appropriate changes or amendments to the management plan.

5. Seasonal restricted areas around bird colonies. Seasonal restrictions will be imposed around active colonies of nesting birds by the appropriate state agency.

Because of the sensitivity of bird nesting colonies, active colonies of nesting birds and 100 meters around these active colonies shall be considered sensitive from April 15 to August 31 of each year. Entrance into these areas for any reason other than approved and permitted research and monitoring activities shall be prohibited during the specified period.

Currently there appears to be little conflict between existing public use patterns and birds nesting on ungranted state lands. As an alternative to posting each colony every summer and then enforcing those posted restricted areas, it is anticipated that an educational approach will be instituted. Through various media and targeting primary user groups, the public will be educated regarding the sensitivity of the nesting birds and encouraged to remain at least 100 meters away from active colonies. Active bird colonies which are close to high use areas may be posted and monitored if this becomes necessary to protect nesting birds.

6. Emergency incidents. Emergency regulations may be imposed as necessary to protect and preserve the ungranted state lands.

In an emergency situation, it may be necessary for the VMRC to issue emergency regulations. For purposes of this plan, "emergency situation" means (i) a situation involving an imminent threat to public peace, health, safety and welfare, or (ii) a situation involving an imminent threat to the natural resources of these lands.

The VMRC shall have the power to promulgate necessary emergency regulations. The emergency regulation shall be adopted in accordance with the provisions of the agency process for making emergency regulations. Emergency regulations shall remain in effect no longer than 30 days unless a public hearing is held as required in § 28.2-211 after being advertised as prescribed in § 28.2-209 of the Code of Virginia.

The VCLMAC shall have the power to make recommendations for emergency regulations to the VMRC. Private parties shall have the power to recommend emergency regulations to either the VCLMAC, who will forward the request to the VMRC for action, or directly to the VMRC.

7. Fire management. Wildfires should be monitored, and a formal fire management policy may be developed in the future.

Wildfire, whether ignited naturally or by arson, may occasionally affect the ungranted state lands. Prescribed fire, although not indicated for the ungranted state lands at this time, may become a necessary management tool in the future. Wildfires should be monitored and action should be taken to protect neighboring property when necessary. The VMRC may propose regulations regarding campfires if the need arises.

8. Education. An education program will be developed to raise awareness to the sensitive natural resources of the ungranted state lands.

Education initiatives focusing on watermen, anglers, recreational boaters, and tourists should be designed and instituted to raise awareness to the sensitive resources of the ungranted state lands and to encourage visitors to respect requests for protecting these resources. A major thrust of educational endeavors should be information about the sensitivity of nesting birds and persuasion of visitors to honor the recommended seasonal restricted areas.

The media or public education may include posters displayed at public boat landings and other community gathering places (libraries, schools, etc.), brochures or "fact sheets" distributed with salt water fishing licenses, brochures sent to tourists and tour guides, brochures distributed at the parks and refuges of the area, and public service announcements on local radio stations.

9. Visitation management policy. Effects of increased public use on the ungranted state lands will be monitored.

As public use of lands on the Eastern Shore of Virginia increases, the effects of tours and visits to or near the ungranted state lands and their sensitive biological resources should be determined. It may be possible to monitor and, if necessary, manage public use through mechanisms established by existing regulations.

10. Nonindigenous species policy. Intentional introductions of nonindigenous plants and animals on the ungranted state lands shall be opposed unless environmental and economic evaluations are conducted and reviewed in order to ensure that risks associated with the introduction are acceptably low. Unintentional introductions of nonindigenous plants and animals on the ungranted state lands shall be prevented. Prevention of unintentional introductions should rely on education and monitoring.

Previous intentional and unintentional introductions should be examined regarding impact to native wildlife and, if necessary, control or eradication measures should be pursued.

Introductions of nonindigenous species may present a threat to native wildlife and native habitats. Introductions into sensitive areas have been known to cause serious ecosystem dysfunction. On the ungranted state lands, nonindigenous wetland plants could significantly alter the wetland habitat and nonindigenous animals could directly or indirectly affect indigenous species.

Under this management plan, intentional introductions should be opposed, unless environmental and economic evaluations ensure that the risks associated with the introduction are low. In accordance with the policy of the Chesapeake Bay Program regarding the participation of other jurisdictions in the introduction of nonindigenous species, first-time introductions should also be evaluated by other jurisdictions within the bay region. Final decision, however, lies with the appropriate Virginia agency (VMRC or DGIF). As the threat of unintentional introductions is as great as intentional ones, efforts to prevent such introductions should be pursued through education and monitoring programs.

The control or eradication of a nonindigenous species may become an important issue. If a species which has been accidentally or intentionally introduced is determined to be a threat to native wildlife or habitat, methods of control or eradication should be evaluated in regard to best protecting the natural environment. Such operations (e.g., trapping, spraying, and/or burning) should be carefully carried out by the VMRC, or other designated agency, in accordance with state and federal laws and regulations.

11. Dredging. Dredging through or next to the ungranted state lands shall be coordinated with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and other dredging authorities.

Dredging through or next to ungranted state lands poses a threat to wetlands habitats, birds and other wildlife. The VMRC shall coordinate with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and other dredging authorities regarding the planning and implementation of dredging projects.

The VMRC shall review all proposals and permit applications for dredging and/or placing of dredged material in the immediate vicinity or adjacent to the ungranted state lands. Surveys for dredging and other projects should be conducted in a manner designed to avoid or minimize the disruption of bird nesting colonies.

12. Research and monitoring. A detailed research and monitoring plan for the ungranted state lands should be developed.

A research and monitoring plan which addresses national, state, ecosystem-wide and site-specific research and monitoring needs must be developed. This will require a determination of which national, state, ecosystem-wide, and site-specific priorities are appropriate for consideration on the ungranted state lands. To accomplish this, the VMRC, in coordination with various state agencies, shall solicit input from national and state resource management agencies, affected local governments, and individual citizens.

Under this management plan, the VMRC will work with state and local agencies, interest groups, and local citizens of the Eastern Shore to identify problem areas or concerns associated with the ungranted state lands, and to list and prioritize research and monitoring needs. Some research and monitoring needs have already been identified and should be pursued through appropriate federal and/or state funding. These are:

- a. Water quality, geology, habitats and wildlife. In order to improve the management of ungranted state lands, site-specific information on water quality, geology, habitats and wildlife of the ungranted state lands should be researched to more accurately characterize the state lands on both the seaside and bayside of the Eastern Shore. A complete species list for the ungranted state lands should be prepared that includes rare, endangered, threatened or nearly extinct species encountered on these lands.
- b. Periodic surveys of the ungranted state lands. The barrier islands and the extensive lagoon system between the barrier islands and the mainland undergo nearly constant change and modification through natural forces such as wave dynamics, storms and sea level rise. The movement and drift of the barrier islands and the changes in the lagoonal system behind the barrier islands should be closely monitored. The VMRC intends to periodically re-survey and re-map the ungranted state lands on the Eastern Shore. Updated maps will be filed with the county clerks of Accomack and Northampton Counties.
- c. Colonial nesting bird monitoring. A large interagency effort was recently completed in which all the bird nesting colonies of eastern Northampton and Accomack Counties were surveyed in a single nesting season. Although this study has provided valuable comprehensive information on bird nesting patterns of the area, this one-year study represents only a "snapshot" of bird nesting patterns. Additional comprehensive surveys are needed to identify changes in bird nesting patterns from year to year. Continued comprehensive colonial nesting bird surveys of the seaside marsh islands, including monitoring in the ungranted state lands, is recommended.

d. Archaeological and cultural surveys. It has not been determined that the area of the ungranted state lands contains any material of archaeological importance. The Eastern Shore was inhabited by small Indian tribes when the English arrived in the 17th Century. The early inhabitants were primarily farmers and fishermen. Without further study, it is not known whether early inhabitants left remains or artifacts in the area of the ungranted state lands. Before conducting any ground disturbing activities, the possibility of the existence of archeological remains or artifacts should be considered. A survey of the ungranted state lands should be conducted in an effort to identify any sites of potential archeological significance.

e. Impacts of public use on the ungranted state lands. The impacts of man's influence and the effects of visitation should be monitored to determine the need for limitations and restrictions to protect and conserve the natural resources of the ungranted state lands.

GENERAL NOTICES/ERRATA

STATE WATER CONTROL BOARD

Proposed Consent Special Order Stillwater, Inc.

The State Water Control Board proposes to enter into a consent special order with Stillwater, Inc. to address anticipated violations of the State Water Control Law and regulations at Stillwater's Goshen facility. Stillwater is subject to a No-Discharge Certificate issued by the board authorizing the company to discharge its wastewater into a nondischarging lagoon. All No-Discharge Certificates in Virginia will expire by regulation on July 1, 1999. Stillwater has been unable to convert its certificate to a VPA permit because the cost of upgrading its lagoon is prohibitive.

Rockbridge County and the Public Service Authority are working with Stillwater to construct a regional wastewater treatment facility which will serve Stillwater, as well as other neighboring businesses and residents. The consent order will allow Stillwater to continue to operate its existing lagoon under the terms of its certificate for another three years and will require connection to the new facility as soon as construction is complete.

The board will receive written comments relating to the proposed consent special order until May 12, 1999. Comments should be addressed to Elizabeth V. Scott, Department of Environmental Quality, Post Office Box 1129, Harrisonburg, Virginia 22801, and should refer to the consent special order.

The proposed order may be examined at the Department of Environmental Quality, Valley Regional Office, 4411 Early Road, Harrisonburg, Virginia 22801. A copy of the order may be obtained in person or by mail from this office.

The board will meet to consider for final adoption wildlife regulations to be effective from July 1999 through June 2001. Under board procedures, regulatory actions occur over two sequential board meetings. At the May 6, 1999, meeting, the board will determine whether the amendments to regulations for game wildlife, hunting and trapping, including the length of seasons, bag limits and methods of take for game, which were proposed at its March 4, 1999, board meeting, will be adopted as final regulations. The board will solicit comments from the public during the public hearing portion of the meeting on May 6, at which time any interested citizen present shall be heard. The board reserves the right to adopt final amendments which may be more liberal than, or more stringent than, the regulations currently in effect or the regulation amendments proposed at the March 4, 1999, board meeting, as necessary for the proper management of wildlife resources.

Additional information on this review of regulations, including a list of the specific regulations subject to review and additional details on opportunities for public involvement, was published in a separate announcement in the "General Notices" section of the February 15, 1999 Virginia Register.

The board may discuss general and administrative issues. The board may hold an executive session before the public session begins on May 6. If the board completes its agenda on May 6, it may not convene on May 7, the second of the scheduled two days of the meeting. The board may elect to hold a dinner Wednesday evening, May 5, at a location and time to be determined.
